

2018 ISS (Int'l Schumpeter Society) Conference in Seoul
Call for Papers (visit www.iss2018seoul.com)

Dear colleagues,

The biennial conference of the International Schumpeter Society will be held in 2018 in Seoul, Korea. Under the theme of innovation, catch-up, and sustainable development, it will be held on campus of Seoul National University for the three days of July 2-4, 2018; It will start from the morning of July 2 Monday to end by the afternoon of July 4 with the Schumpeter Prize dinner on July 3.

We invite you to submit abstract of your papers to be considered for presentation at the conference. The conference will bring together scholars, policy makers and practitioners, including graduate students, working on broad issues related to innovation from a variety of perspectives. It also aims to foster an interdisciplinary exchange of knowledge. Our homepage is www.iss2018seoul.com Please find a call for papers and specific instructions for submissions here (<https://easychair.org/conferences/?conf=iss2018>).

Some of the tentative names for plenary/keynotes speakers include B. Lundvall, J. Sachs, M. Egidi, Justin Lin, H. Odagiri, F. Malerba, and K. Lee (Presidential address), etc.

The Conference is open to submissions that deal with theoretical, methodological, empirical, and policy issues with Innovation, Catch-up, and Sustainable Development. We would like to encourage submissions especially in the following priority areas:

Innovation systems and Innovation Policy
Micro- and Macro-economics of Innovation
Long term economic development and Sustainability
Agent based models of innovation and Complexity Economics
Economics of firm and Corporate Governance
Innovation and entrepreneurship, including social innovation
Science, Technology and Society
Heterodox approaches compatible with Neo-Schumpeterian economics
Economics of Catch-up by the latecomers and emerging economies
Issues in Asia-Pacific economies:
Comparative and International analysis of economic growth around the world

Also, there will be sessions on book launching where authors introduce their new books. Thus we encourage researchers to suggest proposals for special or parallel sessions (including book launching) on diverse topics of contemporary interest and to coordinate paper submissions for these sessions.

Following the tradition, there will journal publication of papers presented at the ISS 2018 conference in the special issue of Journal of Evolutionary Economics (official journal of the ISS), as well as an edited volume by the Cambridge Univ. Press. In addition, we will see publication of special issue in other journals, like Seoul Journal of Economics (SCOPUS) and Singapore Economic Review (SSCI).

IMPORTANT DATES

Submissions will be open to February 28, 2018.

Information about acceptance/rejection by March 31 or earlier (on requests)

Early bird registration: April 30, 2018.

CHAIRMAN of the Local Organizing Committee:

Dr. Keun Lee, President of the ISS

(Professor of Economics, Seoul National University; Kenneth@snu.ac.kr)

LOCAL SPONSORS and ORGANIZERS:

Institute of Economic Research, SNU;

Center for Economic Catch-up;

Institute of Management Research, SNU (Business School);

Interdisciplinary Program in Technology Management Economics and Policy, SNU;

Korea Development Economics Association;

Korea Society for Innovation Management & Economics;

City of Seoul

CONFERENCE VENUE

Seoul National University, 1 Gwanak-ro, Gwanak-gu, Seoul 08826, Korea (<http://en.snu.ac.kr/>)

CONTACT

Dr. Raeyoon Kang (Ph. D in Economics)

E-mail: iss2018seoul@gmail.com

Looking forward to seeing you in Seoul!

Local Organizing Committee

2018 International Schumpeter Society Conference Seoul