

II LALICS-YSI INET-RED PYMES PhD Academy

19-24 September, 2019
Rosario, Santa Fe, Argentina

Latin America's Knowledge Systems, Innovation and Capacity Building Research Network (LALICS), Young Scholars Initiative – Institute for New Economic Thinking (YSI INET), and Red PYMES initiate the call for papers to the II LALICS/YSI-INET/Red PYMES PhD Academy.

The aim of the Academy is to contribute to the capacity building of doctoral students for the development of their theses, both at the theoretical and empirical level, in subjects related to the analysis of innovation and development processes in Latin America and the Caribbean, according to LALICS research areas (<http://www.lalics.org/research-topics/>):

- Public Policies Science, Technology and Innovation
- Management of Innovation and knowledge
- Internationalization of Science, Technology and Innovation
- Innovation, Growth, Development and Inclusion
- Learning, Knowledge and Scientific and Technological Capabilities
- Social Studies on Science, Technology and Innovation

The PhD Academy offers the opportunity to connect students to regional and global research networks, in a space of interaction and debate with recognized scholars.

The Academy comprises three main activities

- Presentation of PhD these projects and advances;
- Workshops and Knowledge Islands with specialists;
- Discussion and networking with policy-makers, productive sector and academic journals.

Additionally, as part of the activities of the Academy, participating students will have a special fee to participate and present papers at the XXIV Annual Meeting of the Mercosur Pymes Network whose motto is "Dilemmas and challenges for SMEs in the current economic, technological and social context" to be held from September 25 to 27 in the same venue as the Academy: National University of Rosario. The Red PMES Mercosur Network is one of the longest-lived thematic networks in the region, with almost 25 years of existence with members from Mexico, Colombia, Uruguay, Brazil, Chile and Argentina. It is affiliated to the International Council for Small Business, a global network of researchers with more than 50 years of presence in more than 80 countries.
